Greek Myths

told by Lynn Ruehlmann

Telling well-known and barely-known stories, Lynn shares the entertainment and wisdom of the ancient myths. Stories are chosen for specific audiences, but you might hear:

- ❖ “Baby Hermes and the First Lute:” Hermes was amazing and mischievous from the minute he was born!
- ❖ “Io and Zeus:” Wherever Zeus goes, trouble follows.
- ❖ “Aristaeus and the Bees:” The wisdom of ancient stories just keeps buzzing about.
- ❖ “Athena and Arachne:” Best watch your tongue!

“Both teachers and students were impressed with Lynn’s skill at her craft. Students who have already practiced storytelling themselves were very aware of how she became all the different characters in the stories by using her voice, facial expressions and gestures.”

--Haslett Middle School, Michigan

Lynn Ruehlmann tells stories through theatrical portrayals of real people in history and real people she’s known and bigger than life characters of myths. She has been presenting programs at festivals, museums and schools since 1990. Lynn was named “Best Actress in a Comedy” by Folio, and “Artist of the Year” by Young Audiences of Virginia. Her CD “Spy! The Story of Civil War Spy Elizabeth Van Lew” won two national awards.
