I Started Out As a Kid: Tales Spun with Laughter

From the moment you appeared on the performance stage, you were a festival hit!

Peg O'Sullivan
Connecticut Storytelling Festival

You made me a hero for arranging to have you as our guest speaker! There wasn't anything we didn't like.

Linda Cohen, Virginia Beach

I've heard nothing but rave reviews all day about your performance last night. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the evening and has talked about nothing else.

Audiences love laughing with Lynn as she shares stories of growing up. Her stories resonate with audience members so that they remember pieces of their own histories. At the same time, her stories surprise—you never know what's coming next!

Lynn chooses stories for each program to fit the audience, so you might hear about going to the super-modified stock car races with her music professor father, or you might hear about a panicked week in the commercial photography studio where she worked, or you might hear how she carved her name into her sister's door.

You always leave Lynn's programs feeling lighter of heart.

Lynn Ruehlmann's performances and workshops have taken her to festivals, libraries, museums, schools and colleges all across the country. She won a Folio award for Best Actress in a Comedy, Young Audiences of Virginia named her Artist of the Year, and her audiobooks "Spy! The Story of Civil War Spy Elizabeth Van Lew" and "It Happened in the White House" each won two national awards.
